Student Handbook

Senior High School Department

THE FOUNDER SAINT HANNIBAL MARY DI FRANCIA

St. Hannibal was born to a knight and a noblewoman in Messina, Italy on July 5, 1851. He was orphaned at a tender age. As a young man, he had been given the intuition of the necessity of Prayer for Vocations. When he became a priest (March 16, 1878), he committed himself to the moral and spiritual redemption of the poorest area in his city, giving up all his inherited wealth to the service of God through his manifold works of charity among the poor children. He is known as the “Apostle of Prayer for Vocations” because he focused all his works on the promotion of the ROGATE (Latin for “pray”), following the evangelical call of our Lord as told by two evangelists: Matthew (9:37-38) and Luke (10:2) – “THE HARVEST IS GREAT, BUT THE WORKERS ARE FEW, PRAY THEREFORE THE LORD OF THE HARVEST TO SEND GOOD WORKERS INTO HIS HARVEST.” Pondering upon the meaning and message of the sacred words, he saw in them the ineffable solution for the salvation of the many poor children whom he learned to love with tender and divine affection. Fr. Hannibal founded two religious congregations, the Rogationists of the Heart of Jesus and the Daughters of Divine Zeal, to help him carry out and propagate the prayer for vocations.

Fr. Hannibal passed to eternity on June 1, 1927, but his spirit remains alive in the hearts and minds of all his spiritual sons and daughters.

He was beatified on October 7, 1990 during the Synod of Bishops and was canonized on May 16, 2004 in Rome, Italy by His Holiness, Pope John Paul II.

FOREWORD

A wholesome educational formation is possible only through cooperative efforts extended by both the home and the school. Consistency of purpose and manner in realizing this formation is best achieved through policies and regulations.

This handbook is intended for the purpose of this realization. It aims to summarize in an orderly and readable manner all the salient information and the policies and regulations of Rogationist College. Through this, it is expected that:

1. Students will acquaint themselves with the objectives, policies, procedures and regulations of Rogationist College;
2. Administrators and teachers will acquire working knowledge in guiding the education community to realize the vision-mission and goals of the school as they promote the observance of its policies and regulations; and
3. Parents will understand their role in promoting and realizing the educational and institutional objectives of the school.

The policies, rules and regulations in this handbook are intended to promote an atmosphere that is conducive to the students' personal growth founded on Christ and His Gospel to pursue God's call, in obedience to the Rogate, and in accordance with the ideals of St. Hannibal Mary Di Francia.

Part I HISTORY

Like any family or community, Rogationist College (RC) has a rich historical heritage which every RC student should be proud of. To appreciate more deeply the roots of an RC community, an overview of the history of the congregation of the Rogationists, and more particularly that of RC, is presented here.

THE ROGATIONIST CONGREGATION

The Rogationists of the Heart of Jesus (RCJ) is a religious congregation of priests and brothers founded by St. Hannibal Mary Di Francia in 1887 in Messina, Italy. Both the Rogationists of the Heart of Jesus and its sister congregation, the Daughters of Divine Zeal, are devoted to prayer and promotion of vocations in the Church, and to the education of young people, particularly the poor and disadvantaged. The legacy of St. Hannibal is kept alive by these congregations present today in Europe (Italy, Spain, Albania and Poland); in South America (Brazil, Argentina and Paraguay); in North America (USA and Mexico); in Africa (Rwanda and Cameroun); in Oceania (Papua New Guinea); and in Asia (the Philippines, India, Korea, Vietnam, and Indonesia).

THE ROGATIONIST PHILIPPINE DELEGATION

The Rogationists established their first missionary activities in the Philippines in November 1976 to promote a culture of vocation and to assist the poor, especially the children. Their long term strategy was to prepare young Filipinos to be agents of social growth and transformation driven by the ideals of St. Hannibal Mary Di Francia.

Part II

LIFE PURPOSE, GUIDING PHILOSOPHY, VISION AND MISSION

THE LIFE PURPOSE

Rogationist College exists primarily to enable the youth, especially the poor and underprivileged assisted by the St. Anthony's Boys Village Foundation, to discover in their life the project of God by becoming good Christians and responsible members of society through Secondary, Technical and Tertiary education anchored on the formative philosophy of the Rogationists.

GUIDING PHILOSOPHY

Rogationist College (RC) in St. Anthony's Boys Village in Silang, Cavite is a Catholic co-educational community committed to the formation of the whole human person.

RC, in its mission to help the youth, bases its educative system on a philosophy of education which is attentive to the instances of human life. It is both personalistic and vocational in nature. RC forms its students to the proper understanding and dynamics of self. The process brings them to a serene enjoyment of life according to the dictum of responsible acting and sharing.

The vocational nature of the RC system facilitates its students in the acquisition of a realistic life perspective. It is a view which is sensitive to life's origin and destiny. RC believes and professes that every person is called not only to live but also to fulfill life as God's gift.

RC is convinced that real education is not just academic education. It espouses a style of forming that opens avenues to the proper exercise of love of God and neighbor, patriotism, integrity, and excellence.

The educative formation of RC is always considered an encounter between the teachers and their students. In doing the personalistic and vocational approach to education, RC individuates three interrelated moments of the meeting, which ends in the mature choices for the life orientation of its students.

The first moment is ORGANIZATION. Here, the organizing student is met by a teacher who is a guide. In this moment, the students are initiated to find and form the most important instances of their life and then cherish them.

The second moment is IDENTIFICATION. Here teachers are models. St.

Hannibal Mary Di Francia, founder of the Rogationist, wants all institutions of the Rogationists to educate through good examples. RC believes that for students to grow in the right direction, the edifying life of teachers is very important.

The third moment is DECISION. Self-fulfillment is also self-determination. At the end of the formative process, students of RC should have already acquired a certain degree of independence. Knowing better to distinguish right from wrong, they should be capable of pursuing not just terrestrial but also personal and possibly celestial good.

RC's philosophy of education, following the teachings of St. Hannibal Mary Di Francia and inspired by the Gospel of the Christ of the Rogate, goes therefore to the roots of the human person.

-Article 76. The Child and Youth Welfare Code (Presidential Decree No. 603, s. 1974)

GENERAL POLICIES

1. The rules and regulations of RC as stated in this Handbook are intended to enhance the life in school of an RC student as he relates and interacts with the members of the school community. As such, it is understood that they are mutual good role models of each other.
2. It is the duty and responsibility of the parents and/or guardians to keep track of the progress of their children/wards in school. The parents and/or guardians are encouraged to confer with the school authorities at their own volition or whenever calls for conference are issued to them. This is to enhance the harmonious working relationship between the school and the home for the welfare of the student.
3. The enrollment of a student in RC is taken as an expressed willingness on his/her part, and consequently of his/her parents and/or guardians, to abide by all rules and regulations of the school. Thus, the student and his/her parents and/or guardians are committed to the strict observance of the same.
4. RC reserves the right to admit, readmit, refuse admission or exclude a student or drop the name of an erring student from the school rolls on the basis of his/her academic performance, conduct or attendance.
5. RC acknowledges its obligations to exercise reasonable supervision over the conduct of the student and to cultivate the best potentialities of the heart and mind of the student. Its role in "loco parentis" is the exercise of substitute parental authority over students in the school and in school-related activities (Civil Code, Art. 349).

6. RC, as a Catholic school, strongly respects and adheres to the practice of holy sacrament (matrimony) and does not tolerate sexual indiscretions. Violation of this policy would merit the student appropriate disciplinary action, including but not limited to, requiring the student to go on leave or will be excluded or dropped from the school rolls.
7. RC expects its students to uphold the standards of responsibility and dignity. When a student of RC does not measure up to these standards, he/she will be excluded or dropped from the school rolls after due process.
8. Students, either as individuals or as a group, must not use the name and seal of the school without official authorization.
9. Students who are using the social media in their respective homes are not to make inappropriate comments (including in private messages) about the school personnel or other students.
10. Parents or guardians may consult or confer with teachers and instructors provided they secure appointments with the Department Head (Principal, Dean or TED Head) two days before the actual date of appointment. Concerns and/or complaints must be written and directly addressed to proper school authority rather than posting them on social media – whether on their own pages, in closed groups (e.g. groups set up for school parents to communicate with each other) or on the school's pages. Complaint posted on social media will not be entertained by the school.
11. Parents, guardians or visitors are not allowed to go to the classrooms. Messages and allowance for the students must be coursed through the Guidance Office.
12. Students may be called out of the classrooms provided an approved written permission/call slip is issued by either of the following:

 - 12.3. Director for Student Services (DSS)
 - 12.4. Director for Spiritual Affairs (DSA)

13. As a Catholic School, with Rogationist Formation as the core of the curriculum, RC requires all students to attend and pass all the requirements of Christian Living Education or Religious Education subjects. Students also need to attend masses and/or similar activities and complete spiritual recollections and retreats scheduled by the institution. In addition, parents of High School students are required to follow the agreement (to attend/participate in parents' formation programs, PTA assemblies, etc.) signed during the enrolment of their children.
14. The "No ID, no entry" policy is strictly implemented. The school ID is required for the admittance of students and personnel to the school premises. For parents or other visitors, a visitor's ID is issued by the guard in exchange for a valid identification card, which is returned after a legitimate business transaction or visit inside the campus. Visitors will be charged for lost visitor's ID.
15. High School students will stay inside the campus from the moment of their arrival in the morning until their dismissal time in the afternoon. They cannot leave the school premises unless they have written permission from their parents and/or they have secured a gate pass from the Discipline Office duly noted by the Homeroom Adviser and approved by the Principal. In the absence of both, the Prefect of Discipline signs the gate pass. In case of sickness/medical concern, the School Nurse will issue the gate pass.

Students should relay to their parents all announcements which concern them. Likewise, the school gives out regular and/or timely communications or correspondence to parents. The parents are earnestly requested to acknowledge every communication by filling-up the reply/return slips/parental consents and returning them to the school through their children.
23. Parents/Students are discouraged to post photos or videos that include other children at the school on their personal social media account.
24. In case of misunderstanding between or among the students, parents of the concerned students should not do any drastic action or in any way harass the other concerned students. Such occurrences will be settled according to the policies and guidelines stipulated in this handbook. In addition to this, cooperation of all stakeholders is needed to maintain and promote trust, respect, and dignity of all students, parents/guardians, teachers, and administrators of the school.
25. An activity permit signed by the teacher-in-charge, noted by the Student Affairs Coordinator, and approved by the Principal/Dean/TED Head must be secured by students at least two days before any school activity/practice during non-class days. This form which can be obtained from the Student Affairs Coordinator should be signed by their parents and returned to the teacher-in-charge a day before the approved activity/practice. In this way, parents are properly informed and could monitor their children's activities.

26. Students who wish to participate in any outside activity as representatives of the school should secure approval from the school administration.
27. In cases of emergency, or for valid reasons, high school students may bring cellular phones or other gadgets provided there is a letter of permission from the parents. These gadgets will be surrendered to the subject teacher, adviser or discipline officer right after the morning assembly and will be retrieved after classes in the afternoon. College students however, may bring their cellular phones but they should refrain from using these inside the classrooms, library or during school hours and liturgical celebrations.
28. students in the commencement exercises.

This is handled by Religious Education subject teachers in collaboration with the Campus Ministry under the Directorate for Spiritual Affairs. This program includes First Friday Masses, monthly confessions, confirmation, retreats recollections and seminars.

II. Academic Policies

1. Classroom Assessment

Classroom Assessment is an integral part of curriculum implementation. It allows the teachers to track and measure learners' progress and to adjust instruction accordingly. Classroom assessment informs the learners, as well as their parents and guardians, of their progress. It is also an ongoing process of identifying, gathering, organizing, and interpreting quantitative and qualitative information about what learners know and can do.

The RC Senior High School Department utilizes two kinds of assessment of a student's performance: the formative assessment and the summative assessment.

1.1. Formative Assessment (Assessment as Learning)

This is conducted during and/or after every lesson. It is given by the teacher to check whether students are attaining the objectives of instructions. The results are recorded but not part of the grade except when the result is satisfactory. The teacher uses the results for improving learning by changing or modifying strategies of learning activities that have not been effective.

1.2. Summative Assessment (Assessment of Learning)

This is conducted at the end of every phase of the lesson for the purpose of making a judgment on the level of proficiency the student has attained. The components of summative assessment are as follows:

- 1.2.1. Written Work component ensures that the students are able to express skills and concepts in written form. Written Work, which may include long quizzes, and unit or long tests, help strengthen test-taking skills among the learners. It is strongly recommended that items in long quizzes/ tests be distributed across the Cognitive Process Dimensions so that all are adequately covered. Through these, learners are able to practice and prepare for quarterly assessment and other standardized assessments. Other written report work may include essays, written reports, and other written output.
- 1.2.2. Performance Task component allows learners to show what they know and are able to do diverse ways. They may create or innovate products or do performance-based tasks. Performance-based tasks may include skills demonstration, group presentations, oral work, multimedia presentations, and research projects. It is important to note that written output may also be considered as performance tasks.
- 1.2.3. Quarterly Assessment measures student learning at the end of the quarter. These may be in the form of objective tests, performance-based assessment, or combination thereof.

1.3. Weight of the Components for SHS

The grading system for Senior High School follows a different set of weights for each component. The weights for the core, applied, specialized and elective subjects are the following:

- 1.3.1. Core Subjects

Written Works	- 25%
Performance Tasks	- 50%
Quarterly Assessment	- 25%
- 1.3.2. Applied and Specialized Subjects (except subjects indicated in 1.3.3.)

Written Works	- 25%
Performance Tasks	- 45%
Quarterly Assessment	- 30%

1.3.3. Work Immersion/ Business Enterprise Simulation/ Capstone Project/ Culminating Activity

Written Works	- 35%
Performance Tasks	- 40%
Quarterly Assessment	- 25%

1.3.4. Elective Subjects

Written Works	- 20%
Performance Tasks	- 60%
Quarterly Assessment	- 20%

*will be changed for G11 due to implementation of SSHS

2. Grading System

RC uses a standards- and competency-based grading system as mandated in the K to 12 Basic Education Program. These are found in the curriculum guides and maps. A student's grade is based on the weighted raw score of his/her summative assessments. The minimum grade need to pass a specific learning area is 60, which is transmuted to 75 in the report card. The lowest mark that can appear on the report card is 60 for Quarterly Grades and Final Grades.

At the end of each semester, students' grades are computed by getting the average of the midterm grade and final grade and this is considered as the subject grade.

Descriptor	Grading Scale	Remarks
Outstanding	90-100	Passed
Very Satisfactory	85-89	Passed
Satisfactory	80-84	Passed
Fairly Satisfactory	75-79	Passed
Did Not Meet Expectations	Below 75	Failed

2. Conduct Probation – A student who has committed a major offense will fall under this status. The student will be closely followed-up by the Adviser, Guidance Counselor and the Discipline Officers for one school year. If he/she commits a series of minor offenses or a major offense, he/she may be excluded the following school year or he/she may be excluded immediately. The Conduct Probation status may be lifted the following school year if no offense has been made (minor or major) and the student has manifested the expected behavior.

III. Conference with Subject Teachers

Conference with Subject Teacher is done if a student commits academic-related offense. After a series of conferences with a teacher and the student still commits an academic-related offense for the third time, inside or outside the classroom, the case may be referred to the Office for Student Discipline.

IV. Due Process

The school recognizes the students' right to due process through conference and dialogue before implementing a disciplinary action. Thus, the school conducts due inquiry or verification of students' cases, wherein parties involved are given the chance to present their sides.

The Discipline Officer is authorized by the school to call students involved. Students will be asked to write his/her narrative account of the incident.

Considering that high school students are of minor age, parents or legal guardians of students involved are invited to the Office for Student Discipline to be informed of the case and to promptly answer charges against them, if they so desire. The basic principles of due process shall be in place.

In some major offenses, the discipline committee may be convened by the Director for Student Services in order to carefully assess the case and reach a decision. This committee is composed of the DSS, Director for Spiritual Affairs, Principal, Prefect of Discipline/Discipline Officer, and Guidance Counselor.

After the discipline committee has reached a decision, a final conference facilitated by the Director for Student Services, Principal and Prefect of Discipline will be made with the student and his/her parents.

A student who has committed an offense may also be referred to the Guidance Office if after due verification and consideration, counseling is deemed to be more appropriate than disciplinary action.

IV. Attendance and Absences

Every student is expected to be regular and punctual in attending classes. As perfect attendance in every class day is the desired goal of every school, students shall not absent themselves without a valid reason.

For every absence in class, there must be a justification duly signed by parents or legal guardian using the student's diary. The Discipline Officer must countersign this before the student is re-admitted to the class.

Absences caused by prolonged illness (3 days or more) should be supported by an official medical certificate duly signed by a registered physician.

Students who report to school after recess and after lunch are considered absent for one half day and one whole day, respectively.

Habitual tardiness especially during the first period in the morning and in the afternoon shall not be allowed. Teachers concerned shall call for the parent or guardian of the student concerned or visit him/her at home.

Students who have been absent/late shall not be admitted to their classes unless they present an admission slip from the Prefect of Discipline/Discipline Officer.

Parents of students who wish to pull out their child from the class must bring a letter in the Student's Diary noted by the Homeroom Adviser and approved by the Principal. They must also secure a gate pass from the Office for Student Discipline.

Excused absences do not exempt any student from accomplishing the work covered in the class during his absence, as well as from the homework and other assignments given to the other students.

The following are the reasons for excused and unexcused absences:

The monitoring shall be lifted only if the student has shown improvement in attendance.
- 3.2. Attendance Probation is a status in which a student is placed if he/she incurs a total of 16 or more absences/tardiness (excused or unexcused) at end of a school year. During the probation period, 5 unexcused absences/tardiness will be counted as a major offense with a corresponding disciplinary action of 1 day working suspension. The status shall only be lifted for the next school year if the student has incurred less than 10 days of absence.

4. Admission

Any student who, for unavoidable circumstances, absents himself/herself from class must submit an excuse letter, accompanied by pertinent documents (e.g. Medical Certificate or letter of consent from the parents or guardian) to the Discipline Officer, who will issue the admission slip. The admission slip must be presented to the teacher concerned not later than the second session following the return of the student. Excuses are for the time missed only. All work (e.g. quizzes, exams) covered by the class during the absence shall be made up within a reasonable time from the date of absence. Teachers will not allow any student to attend classes if he/she is not in proper uniform, late or previously absent without any admission slip.

reflection of the institution's high purpose associated with academic excellence and integrity. In case of offenses, the conduct grades indicated in the policy on discipline overrule the conduct grades given by the teachers for the quarter.

Conduct Mark Equivalent

Excellent	=	99 - 100
Very Satisfactory	=	91 - 98
Satisfactory	=	85 - 90
Moderate Satisfactory	=	80 - 84
Needs Improvement	=	76 - 79

APPENDIX A

MANUAL OF REGULATIONS FOR PRIVATE SCHOOLS

Section 66. Tuition Charges

A student who transfers or otherwise withdraws, in writing, within two weeks after the beginning of classes and who has already paid the pertinent tuition and other fees in full or for any length of time longer than one month may be charged ten (10%) percent of the total amount due for the term if he withdraws within the first week of classes, or twenty percent if within the second week of classes, regardless of whether or not he has actually attended classes. The student may be charged all the school fees in full if he withdraws any time after the second week of classes. However, if the transfer or withdrawal is due to a justifiable reason, the student shall be charged the pertinent fees only up to and including the last month of attendance.

The foregoing tuition fee schedules are based on the premise that a student who enrolls in a school stays enrolled for the entire school year or semester, regardless of his subsequent transfer or withdrawal.

Section 66, MRPS and Section 104, TVET Manual protect schools which accept tuition fee payments on installment – i.e., where a down payment is given upon enrollment and the balance is paid before examinations-- by requiring students who transfer or withdraw from the course to first settle their accounts before the school issues them transfer credentials.

It must be stressed that according to the stipulations of Section 62(e) of the MRPS and section 124(e), TVET Manual, a school can legally collect outstanding tuition fees from a student who has transferred or withdrawn only if he was officially enrolled. This means that the student must have at least made an initial payment of his school fees and that the school must have accepted that payment and authorized him to participate in his classes. Without these attending circumstances, there is no legal basis for the collection of tuition fee charges, since no contractual relationship between student and school was established.

A student who has paid in full or for any length longer than one month and transfers or withdraws in the first week after classes begin shall be charged 10% of the total amount due for the term (i.e. one semester for the collegiate level and TVET courses, one year for elementary and secondary levels); if he withdraws in the second week he will be charged 20%; if he withdraws any time after the second week, he may be fully charged for all fees applicable for the entire term. These charges hold whether or not he actually participated in his classes, because attendance is not the issue; what matters is that the school actually authorized him to attend them.

For purposes of determination, the day of the student's submission of his written notice of withdrawal shall be considered the date of withdrawal. Verbal notice is not enough.

If the tuition fees, registration, library and laboratory fees already paid equal the amount still to be paid for the first month (or less) in a monthly installment scheme, no refund shall be given to the student when he withdraws after the registration period. However, if the transfer or withdrawal is due to justifiable cause, the student shall only be charged the pertinent fees up to the last month of attendance.

An existing DepEd ruling states that any promissory note signed in favor of a school by a student below 18 years old is null and void. It does not constitute the "payment of some kind" needed to establish enrollment unless a responsible relative or legal guardian acts as surety. The reason for this is that in law, a person below 18 years old is still a minor and is not legally competent to contract such a financial obligation. Yet even if the student were of majority age but still dependent on the parents or a guardian for support, the DepEd would not consider him competent to sign a promissory note. Therefore, such a note would likewise be considered null and void unless a responsible relative or guardian appears as surety.

Although the MRPS and the TVET Manual no longer provide for this, it is submitted that students are entitled to a full refund of fees for any course or subject that has been discontinued by the school, or which was not credited by the DepEd, CHED or TESDA.
